

TYPES OF DOGS

ADA covered; Rights to bring animal into public establishments

Allowed to live with disabled owner even if "No Pets" policy

Must be able to tolerate a wide variety of situations

Specially trained to help the handler only with specific tasks

Certified; Provides emotional support & comfort to many people

Provides lessons in self-regulation, communication skills & relationship building between people & dogs *

Provides companionship to owner(s)

*Clients may work with their own dog or the handler's dog; Emotional Support Dogs must be prescribed by a mental health professional